It seems as if it was yesterday when I first gained your friendship. I am certainly proud to call you my friend. May you succeed in your singing (and other things, too.) The Cairo High School Band

Organized in 1946, the Cairo High School Band has been most active throughout the twelve years of its existence. It has played for practically every civic celebration plus many out-of-town engagements. During the school year of 1954-1955 the band played some seventy-odd public performances averaging more than two a week.

The band has participated in every band contest in the state during the past twelve years, winning a total of one hundred fifty-six First Division, ten Second Division, and two Third Division Ratings.

At the state contest in 1952, the last of its kind, the Cairo High School Band earned a perfect score of thirteen First Division Ratings, making an all time record.

At the regional contests held in Moultrie in 1955 and 1956, in Thomasville in 1957, and in Albany in 1958, the band made perfect scores of First Division Ratings for all of the many events entered. Altogether, this makes the sixth year, in seven years of competition, that the band has earned a perfect score in contest. No other school band in this area holds such a record.

The Marching Band

The Cairo High School Band has several "firsts" to its credit. It was the first band to use black light in its football half-time shows; the first to use Swiss Flag Swingers; and the first and only band of its kind in Georgia to go annually on extended concert tours. Since 1956 these tours have taken the band into Florida, Alabama, and South Carolina in addition to their extensive coverage of Georgia. The 1958 tour alone covered 938 miles.

This year, 1959, the band will forego the annual tour in order to accept an invitation to play for the annual meeting of the Georgia Music Educators Association, which meets in conjunction with the Georgia Education Association in Atlanta, March 18 through 21.

Because of the selection of high quality music and the professional manner in which it is presented, the Cairo High School Band has been adjudged one of the best school musical organizations in this section of the country.
